Whether you've seen him in a video or live [lucky you] you have to agree that what you can learn in 5 minutes with Tony Robbins can be pretty profound.

Now, here's a short video of Tony from the archives that you may not have seen. Though millions have in the last 30 years or so - because it's from his Personal Power program, the #1 Personal & Professional Achievement System of All Time. Wow, right?

Anyway, it demonstrates how powerful Tony's tools & principles have always been in helping others find the change they wanted in their lives.

But mostly because it has an extract from an interview that aired across the USA, where he shares the moment he asked himself the question that turned his own life around.

The quality isn't terrific – it was all videotape back then – but the message is as impactful as ever. [And he looks so young!]

For only a few days more you have your best-ever opportunity to experience the most powerful combination of his two most impactful live events:

Call 1800 244 388 to speak to one of Tony's Australian consultants.

"We can change our lives. We can do, have, and be exactly what we wish."
